Mobile Resource Center in Sister Bay Sturgeon Bay, WI –

We Are HOPE, Inc. is pleased to announce that they will be conducting a Mobile Resource Center event at NWTC Learning Center in Sister Bay, WI. The event is being held on Thursday, May 23 from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

We Are HOPE, Inc. is dedicated to connecting employers and job seekers in achieving mutual employment success. The organization is the operator of the Door County Job Center located in the Cherry Point Mall in Sturgeon Bay. The Mobile Resource Center is an effort to bring the services of the job center to the northern part of Door County.

Staff from We Are HOPE, Inc. will be there providing information about employment programs such as Job Services, Job Development and Moving Forward. Partner staff from Great Lakes Training and Development, Forward Services, and the Department of Workforce Development will share information about the following programs: (WIOA) Workforce Innovation & Opportunity Act; (W-2) Wisconsin Works; (FSET) Food Share Employment Training; and (DVR) Division of Vocational Rehabilitation.

Whether you are a job seeker looking for summer or permanent employment, are interested in a career change, looking for help with education costs, or have barriers to getting employed this free event is for you.

The Door County Job Center staff will be there to help you navigate Job Center of Wisconsin and answer your employment questions. We will also be sharing information about available employment opportunities, focusing on the Northern Door area. To be included, employers are encouraged to contact the Job Center by Monday, May 13 by calling 920.743.6915 or by email to Gina Guth at gguth@wearehopeinc.org
